

REMOVABLE 2022 CALENDAR INCLUDED

Greg McLean, M.P.
Calgary Centre

It is an incredible honour to serve the people of Calgary Centre as we step into the New Year.

This holiday season, we take the time to reflect on all that we cherish — peace, friends, and loved ones.

I hope that 2022 will bring health, joy, and many exciting adventures for you and your family.

Greetings from Your MP

A PERSONAL MESSAGE FROM YOUR MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT

Moving into 2022, I want to thank you again for re-electing me as your Member of Parliament for Calgary Centre. I am extremely proud to represent our community, right here in Calgary. No matter the challenge, people here repeatedly come together with typical Albertan humility, resilience, and work ethic.

My family and I are excited that many community events will be returning this year, and that I will be able to return to work in-person in the House of Commons.

Each day, I am working hard to advocate for you. My Conservative colleagues and I will continue to stand up for families facing rising living costs, for businesses unsure what the next few months look like, and for Canadians who are worried about the Liberal government's endless spending and debt.

My team and I are available to answer any questions you may have and assist you with accessing any federal government programs and services. Please see the back of this calendar for ways to reach my office.

Sincerely,

Greg McLean

Member of Parliament | Calgary Centre

NEED HELP WITH FEDERAL GOVERNMENT PROGRAMS?

Part of my job as a Member of Parliament is to advocate for constituents and help you resolve issues with federal government departments, programs, and services. If you are unsure if my office can help, feel free to ask! Some of the areas where my office can help include:

- 🍁 Citizenship and Immigration
- 🍁 Service Canada
- 🍁 Canada Pension Plan
- 🍁 Passports
- 🍁 Disability Pension Plan
- 🍁 Canada Revenue Agency
- 🍁 Veterans Affairs
- 🍁 Employment Insurance
- 🍁 COVID-19 supports for businesses and workers

PROTECT YOURSELF AGAINST FALSE CRA SCAMS

There are many types of fraud, including new ones invented daily.

Taxpayers should be vigilant when they receive a phone call, email, letter, or text message claiming to be from the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA). If you are not sure if a call claiming to be from the CRA is legitimate, here are some guidelines to help identify legitimate communications from the CRA:

By Phone, the CRA will never: Ask for information about your passport, health card, or driver's license. It will not demand immediate payment by Interac e-transfer, bitcoin, prepaid credit cards or gift cards from retailers such as iTunes, Amazon, or others. It will not use aggressive language or threaten you with arrest or sending the police. It will not leave voicemails that are threatening to give personal or financial information.

By Email, the CRA will never: Give or ask for personal or financial information by email and ask you to click on a link. It will not email you a link asking you to fill in an online form with personal or financial details or send you an email with a link to your refund. It won't demand immediate payment by Interac e-transfer, bitcoin, prepaid credit cards or gift cards from retailers such as iTunes, Amazon, or others. It will not threaten you with arrest or prison.

By Mail, the CRA will never: Set up a meeting with you in a public place to take a payment. It will not demand immediate payment by Interac e-transfer, bitcoin, prepaid credit cards or gift cards from retailers such as iTunes, Amazon, or others. It will not threaten you with arrest or a prison sentence.

The CRA will never: use text or instant messages under any circumstance. If a taxpayer receives text or instant messages claiming to be from the CRA, they are scams!

I strongly encourage you to visit <https://www.canada.ca/en/revenue-agency/corporate/security/protect-yourself-against-fraud.html> to identify legitimate communications from the CRA, be aware of these guidelines to know what to expect when the CRA contacts you and how to protect yourself from identity theft.
