CALENDAR

Greg McLean

Member of Parliament
Calgary Centre

During this holiday season, let us pause and contemplate the abundance of blessings that enrich our lives - the warmth of friendship and family, and the sheer delight of extending kindness to those around us. With heartfelt wishes, our family extends to you and your loved ones a Merry Christmas,

Happy Hanukkah and Seasons Greetings.

En cette période des Fêtes, arrêtons-nous et contemplons l'abondance de bénédictions qui enrichissent nos vies - la chaleur de l'amitié et de la famille, et le pur plaisir d'offrir de la gentillesse à ceux qui nous entourent.

Avec des souhaits sincères, notre famille vous offre, à vous et à vos proches, les meilleurs vœux de Noël et bonne Hanoukka.

Member of Parliament • Député

Canadians enter 2024 with many challenges. The rate of inflation has been rising for at least two years now, with food, fuel and utilities leading the way. Mortgages have doubled for many people, and as more families renew in 2024, the sticker shock will force many compromises in the household budget. Rent is also doubling for those who don't own.

The federal government is responsible for this hardship. Even the Governor of the Bank of Canada says that excess government spending and rising taxes are making it harder for the Bank to combat inflation and bring down interest rates. He says that fiscal and monetary policy need "to row in the same direction", but the government is off on its own spending spree, apparently oblivious to the impact on Canadians.

The government continues to pile on with new taxes, and higher taxes. It even benefits from the extra GST as the price of everything goes up. It isn't fair and it isn't right. They should have your back. They don't.

As your Member of Parliament, I will continue to focus on cost of living challenges. I will also continue to press the government to find the right balance between environmental protection and affordable, responsible energy policy. Those are my priorities for 2024.

INVITATIONS

I love attending events in Calgary Centre whenever I am not in Ottawa. It is a great chance to keep in touch with you.

The House of Commons calendar for 2024 is on the next two pages (subject to change) - typically I am not in Calgary when the House is sitting. But if you have an event or meeting, please let my office know and I will attend if I am able:

Greg.McLean@parl.gc.ca.

I am normally in Ottawa on the days highlighted in green; and usually in Calgary on the other days (with some exceptions for other meetings and obligations). Contact my office if you'd like me to attend an event or meet with you.

Standing Committees are responsible for much of the research and analysis work in Parliament and take considerable time for an MP to prepare and participate.
